LOCAL PARTY COMMITTEES MEET, REPORT PROGRESS

ANDIZHAN PARTY LEADERSHIP CRITICIZED -- Stalins'oye Znanya, No 40, 27 Feb 49

The Bureau of the Andizhan Oblast Committee KP(b) Uzbekistan recently heard a report of Mirzakhmedov, secretary of the Dzhalal-Edinkaki Rayon Party Committee, on the work of the rayon committee. In 1942 the rayon was considered one of the leading and most productive cotton rayons in the oblast, but in recent years, it has lagged in cotton production as a result of the inefficient leadership on the part of the rayon committee.

The work of a considerable number of kolkhoz primary Party organizations in the rayon is being conducted on a low level. The organizations are not exercising their right to control kolkhoz administration. The rayon committee has done nothing to train Party workers, with the result that 18 of the 45 secretaries of primary Party organizations in the rayon are new in Party work and do not have the necessary experience to qualify them for Party leadership. The rayon committee is particularly inefficient in recruiting personnel and rarely puts Uzbeks and Uzbek women into responsible positions. The indifference of the committee toward its personnel is evidenced by the fact that 40 persons were dismissed from membership in the Party in 1948 after an inquiry was made into the rayon's agricultural situation.

The Bureau also found fault with the rayon committee's leadership of industrial competitions, rayon executive committee and village Soviets, Komsomol and trade-union organizations. The political education program for Communists in the rayon is extremely poor. More than 100 Communists are not being given any type of political training. The Bureau of the Oblast Party Committee has ordered the rayon committee and secretaries Mirzaakhmedov and Isakov to correct these faults.
